

CORPORATE

The Maxwell Winward corporate division provides a full company and commercial service which is both cost effective and partner-led.

A corporate finance team advises on all aspects of raising capital, regulatory compliance and mergers and acquisitions. A commercial law department handles agency and distribution, while the banking and finance unit acts for both lenders and borrowers. Maxwell Winward partners are committed to their clients' interests, striving to work closely with clients on all aspects of their businesses. Work carried out includes:

- Listings on the London Stock Exchange, admission to the AIM and PLUS markets.
- Agency, distribution and licensing agreements of all types.
- Mergers and acquisitions; group re-organisations; joint ventures; management buy-ins and buy-outs; acquisition and property finance; regulation and compliance; establishment and structuring of investment vehicles both offshore and onshore.
- Partnership and LLP formation.
- Private Equity and Venture Capital.
- Non-contentious employment law, including employee share schemes.
- Hotel and leisure sector – operating and funding agreements; acquisition investment and joint venture agreements, both in the UK and overseas.
- IT, new media, e-commerce and intellectual property.
- Dispute resolution.
